What People Are Saying

"Delighted you are making your Baha'i 'mini-ads' available to the friends! The great graphics and brief texts are terrific ways to grab the attention of readers and attract their hearts to the themes presented. These will surely boost teaching efforts in all communities that use them!" — Dale Eng

"They are excellent and the right size so a small community like ours can afford to put them in our local paper fairly often. Your ads are right to the point. Thank you!" — Joan McGovern
