What People Are Saying

“Wowza!!! Answered questions I did not even know how to ask. While reading Susan Walker's book, it felt as if she had been listening in on my unspoken thoughts, shared all my deepest doubts, spoke to my heart of things I thought were only known by me and gave me wisdom of the kind only another soul could know.” — Mo Green

"I got your book this evening and finished it tonight. I loved it. I knew a lot of your story but to read it so eloquently written was wonderful. I thoroughly enjoyed it." — Anita Hoezee

"It's a great read! Congratulations!" — Diana Smith Butler

"I loved this book. To write it was brave and beautiful." — Edith Walker

"I just finished reading your book. I was so excited to read about your spiritual experiences that preceded your discovery of Baha'u'llah. I came to the Faith kind of the other way - through logic and reasoning first. I am only just now starting to glimpse the spiritual world and to gain true assurance of God's existence. Everyone has his or her own path, but we all approach the same God. Thank you for publishing your story." — KathyMae Besherse Dickinson

"This is a very powerful book. It came to an end too quickly for I wanted it to go on. Life is always a journey of discovery and development. Most people keep the journey hidden from the outside world. Sue has shared her journey with all of us...and there is much in it for us to understand and learn." — Cowboy Stan

"This a brief account, in a clear, direct style, of a wonderful awakening. I value stories like these as reminders of my own moments of clarity that led me to faith that I often forget in the day-to-day distractions of life. I became acquainted with the author after the events she recounts... Now I understand her radiant spirit better!" — Vic Bertis

“Awesome. It is a short story with the potential to change your life! It is full of life experience and wisdom. The author sticks to the journey expressed by the title and does not wander off downside paths, unnecessary anecdotes or seem preachy in any way. I think many of us are disillusioned by the traditional faiths and yet still seek something: this book provides the antidote.” — Clare Caron
